

STUDIO 1046

commissioned artwork

Customer Agreement

- I will be as clear and upfront about the artwork I am interested in so there's no confusion and the artist can decide whether or not to accept my commission request.
- I agree to pay a 40% non-refundable deposit once the estimated price has been agreed upon and the sketch is approved. The delivery date will be finalized at this stage.
- I agree to pay the remaining 60% upon receipt of the completed artwork, and that the artist is not required to relinquish the artwork to me until all payments are received.
- I understand that once I approve the sketch, the painting process begins and no further changes can be made, without incurring additional charges.
- I understand that while I am now the owner of the completed artwork, I do not hold the copyright, licensing rights, or reproduction rights to the artwork. I am not permitted to reproduce, distribute, or sell images of the artwork for monetary gains. The artwork is for personal use and display only.
- I understand that the artist retains full copyright and licensing of the artwork, and has the right to use the image on their website and on social media, as well as any marketing or promotional purposes.
- Your personal information WILL NOT be used for anything other than billing and a way of contacting you.

Artist Agreement

- I will outline all fees to the client prior to beginning any work, and provide a bill of sale either digitally or a physical copy. This includes the non-refundable deposit, final artwork cost, delivery fees and any additional fees, should there be any.
- Method of payments accepted: Cash or eTransfer.
- I will do my best to have artwork completed by a verbally agreed upon date based on my availability and circumstances. I will keep the client in the loop as the painting processes are underway.
- I am not required to deliver any completed artwork, however, I am open to discussing delivery arrangements if needed. This can be discussed after the artwork is completed, but might incur an additional fee if it was not included in the original quote.
- Sometimes unforeseen events can derail timelines. If due to circumstances beyond my control, I cannot meet the agreed upon deadlines, within reason, your deposit will be refunded
- By submitting this form, I agree to the above "Art Commission Agreement"
